H. Discussion Item

The impact of the pandemic on mental health has been profound and the need to respond to the crisis a serious imperative. To explore the problem, we will hear from Dr. Nance Roy, the Chief Clinical Officer of the Jed Foundation, a nationally prominent voice for the protection of emotional health and suicide prevention for teens and young adults. She will provide a national perspective on mental health pre- and post- pandemic relying on the "Healthy Minds" annual survey.

I. Executive Session

2. Award of Tenure, UMass Chan Medical School
3. Pursuant to Massachusetts General Law Chapter 30A (a) 7. To comply with, or act under the authority of, any general or special law, and pursuant to Massachusetts General Law, Chapter 4; Section 7 clause 26 (d), per the Massachusetts Office of the Attorney General's Open Meeting Law Guidelines and the Public Records Law

The above listings of matters before the UMass Board of Trustees are those reasonably anticipated by the Senior Staff, Secretary and Chair of the Board, and intended to be discussed at the meeting. Not all items listed may in fact be discussed due to circumstances not known in time to provide an adjustment to the publicly available agenda, and other items that are not listed, may also be brought up for discussion, to the extent such is permitted by law.

The UMass Board of Trustees, per its by-laws and to the extent permitted by law, may reserve time during the agenda of its regular meetings for public participation, and/or allow the meeting to be audio/videotaped. Individuals seeking to speak to the Board or audio/video tape the meeting should so inform the Office of the Secretary of the UMass Board of Trustees' office in writing, setting forth the purpose for which they seek to speak and/or audio/videotape the meeting, at least 24 hours before the relevant meeting. The Chairperson shall have discretion and determine whether said individuals shall be permitted to speak and, if so, for how long they may speak on the designated topic. The Chairperson may also exercise discretion and determine to waive the notice requirement set forth above and invite an individual(s) present at the meeting to address the Board.
