Step 13: Time Spent in the US

Enter the arrival date into the US for this current visa and the expiration date/departure date (prior visa information will be entered later). This visit means your arrival for the purpose on the I-20, DS-2019, etc. It does not mean the most current arrival in the US or your first ever arrival in the US.

- Entry Date: For vendors, entry date may only be 30 days in advance
- Permission to stay date expires: This is the date your immigration status expires. This date is from the I-94 or the entry stamp in your passport, from Form I-20 (if F status), from DS-2019 (if J status). Do not use the date on the "US Visa" sticker in the passport nor the expiration date of the passport itself.
- Departure date: The date the non-resident alien plans to leave the US for good. If you are unsure, make an approximation.

Note: the dates are entered using the European date format of day-month-year.

Record the number of days outside the US since the arrival date of the current visa (when you returned home for a visit, etc.) Information from the I-94 departure record and stamps in the passport will assist in determining the dates. Note: This piece is critical for determining the substantial presence test.

- Never enter 0 in the 'days not present' box.
- Days present is from the arrival date, or January 1 of the current year, through today.

Click the button "I have previously visited the US" if there are years in the US prior to the years listed.

- If you have many business/tourist visits on B-1, B-2, WB (Visa Waiver Business), WT (Visa Waiver Tourism) that are older than 3 year-period from current year, you may disregard those visits.
- If you have more visits than the space allowed, click the ONLINE HELP button in the lower right hand corner and contact Glacier. They will be able to assist you to determine which visits have the most tax impact.

Step 17: Tax Withholding and Tax Treaty Exemption Review

Glacier is reviewing the information submitted and determining the tax status and any possible Tax Treaty Exemptions.

If Glacier determines you do not qualify for a tax treaty, or there is no treaty, Glacier will state their determination.

If Glacier has placed a 'hold', then you will see this screen. In the case of guest speakers, guest lecturers, artists, performers, independent personal services, or royalty recipients, you must provide a SSN, ITIN, or Foreign Tax Identification Number to claim an exemption from tax withholding under income tax treaty.
