Chairman Manning convened the meeting at 10:04 a.m.

Chairman Manning thanked Chancellor Subbaswamy and his team for hosting the Board. He congratulated the Chancellor for the hockey team’s recent win.

Chairman Manning commented on the need to continue to work as a system to become more efficient and fiscally responsible, and to be positioned to take advantage of opportunities that may present themselves. He reported that efforts to assess opportunities in online education continue with hopes toward bringing a plan before the Board.

Chairman Manning then announced the meeting’s agenda.

Consideration of the prior Minutes of the Board
Chairman Manning stated that the Board was provided with the draft meeting minutes of the September 19, 2018 open and executive sessions and asked for any corrections. With no corrections, the minutes were approved.

Student Trustee Report, UMass Amherst
Trustee Nair commented on the fostering of academic growth at the University and highlighted UMass Amherst’s national rankings across a variety of fields. She also commented on the onslaught of racist and biased-related incidents that have plagued the campus and stated that along with campus administration, she and other student leaders condemn those acts which do not reflect the campus’ values as a living and learning community. She asked the Board to keep in mind the University’s commitment to diversity and inclusion when voting on decisions that affect the UMass system and to consider how they can intentionally create spaces and policies that will limit acts of hatred and foster shared values.

She commented on the increase of individuals seeking counseling and mental health-related services on the Amherst campus due to the recent tense political and social climate and ask the Board to consider ways to support counseling and mental health services and explore the opportunity for shared services in the UMass system to address the need across the system.

Trustee Nair also asked the Board to look for ways to stabilize or lower tuition rates so that students have equitable access to pathways for success.

President’s Report
President Meehan reported on the University’s fiscal oversight and accountability measures due to new measures approved by the Board including a reserve policy and the establishment of a stabilization fund. In addition, he reported on the progress of a shared services plan, and the University’s opportunities with online education. He thanked the campuses for their work and continued commitment to affordability, access and opportunity for current and future UMass students.

President Meehan provided brief highlights from the campuses and congratulated them on their achievements. He encouraged the Board to read the Chancellor’s Quarterly Reports which provide information about the progress and accomplishments across the UMass system.

Public Speakers
Blythe White, a first-year student at UMass Amherst and member from the Center for Education Policy and Advocacy (CEPA) spoke about how public higher education continues to be underfunded and how the debt that students take on harms their future. She shared her personal experience of how student debt restricts her opportunities in life and her family’s and then asked the Board to commit to supporting the complete funding of public higher education in Massachusetts.

Erik Plowden, a member of CEPA spoke about the Board’s unique platform and asked that they join with the students in urging Legislators to halt tuition and fee increases, and that they commit to appealing for the additional $500 million in funding that public higher education needs for a debt-free future for all students.

Eve Weinbaum, President of the Massachusetts Society of Professors and UMass Amherst Labor Center commented on the settled contract agreements for tenured and non-tenure-track faculty. She then called on the Board to join the unions in supporting the “Fund Our Future” legislation which would provide funding for K-12 schools, as well as provide the funding that public universities need so that Massachusetts is no longer near the bottom of states in support for higher education.
