Chair Woolridge convened the meeting at 9:03 a.m. and stated that he has determined that Trustees King-Shaw and O’Brien will be participating by telephone as permitted by 940 CMR 29.10(5), since they are geographically distant from the meeting making it unreasonably difficult for them to attend in person.

Chair Woolridge stated that the Board was provided with draft minutes of the April 1, 2015, Joint CASA and A&F meeting, the April 8 Board of Trustees meeting, and the May 1 special Board meeting. The Chair asked for any corrections. With no corrections, the minutes were approved.

Reports:

Chair’s Report
Chair Woolridge welcomed the Board to the Amherst campus and thanked Chancellor Subbaswamy for hosting the Board at the flagship campus. Chair Woolridge provided an overview of yesterday’s Committee of the Whole discussion on ongoing E&E efforts of each campus. He also highlighted commencements and campus events and accomplishments of 2015.

Chair Woolridge announced that Trustee Gomez has resigned from the UMass Board of Trustees and congratulated her on her appointment by Governor Baker to serve on the Judicial Nominating Commission. Chair Woolridge congratulated out-going student Trustees Sarah Freudson, Phillip Geoffroy, and Patrick Lowe for their service to the Board, and thanked President Caret for his leadership to the University System. He also welcomed President-elect Meehan.

Chair Woolridge provided an overview of the day’s agenda including the establishment of a Search Committee for a Chancellor for the Lowell campus and approval of tuition and fee charges. Chair Woolridge then announced the establishment of the Governance Committee membership: Trustees King-Shaw, Chair; Johnston, Vice Chair; Furman, Mullan, and Chair Woolridge. The Committee will meet over the summer and report to the Board in the fall.

Student Trustee Report
Trustee Freudson thanked the Board and commented on her experience as a Trustee. She reported on students concerns on the Amherst campus which included the importance of campus safety, opposition of the proposed tuition and fee increases, and the potential investment in a new healthcare facility on campus.

Public Speakers
Eric Berlin, Principal trumpet of the Albany Symphony, from the Amherst and Carl Ericson, incoming UMass Amherst co-Chair, Joint Executive Council, Professional Staff Union/MTA/NEA commented on the wage increases and un-negotiated union contracts.

Charlotte Kelly, UMass Amherst Student, commented on the proposed tuition and fees increase and expressed her opposition of the fees. She urged the Board to continue to exercise affordability.

President’s Report
President Caret thanked Chancellor Subbaswamy for hosting the Board and reflected on the learning, challenges, and accomplishments during his tenure as UMass President. He then noted several remarkable achievements on each campus and system-wide including being named the top public university in New England and one of the 100 best universities in the world.

President Caret thanked Trustees Gomez, Freudson, Geoffroy and Lowe for their service to the Board and the University. President Caret commented that Trustees Freudson and Geoffroy are members of the 2015 graduating class. He also commented on the completion of the commencement season where UMass graduated 17,000 students.

President Caret commented on the proposed tuition and fees increase. He stated that in recent years the University has performed aggressive cost-reduction and avoidance programs in addition to the unprecedented levels of support from the state to be able to freeze tuition and fees and forged a partnership that yielded great benefits for the students and their families.
Reports on the Standing Committees:

Committee on Academic and Student Affairs
Trustee Lee thanked the student Trustees for their service to the Board and CASA. She also thanked President Caret and the Chancellors for their tireless efforts to improve student success.

Trustee Lee reported that the Committee on Student and Academic Affairs met on June 3rd. The Committee discussed two information items and action items 1, 3, and 4 were placed on the Consent Agenda for Board action.

Trustee Lee then asked the Chair to entertain a motion to approve the Ph.D. in Business Administration, UMass Dartmouth. Chair Woolridge asked for questions and discussion.

Trustee Peyser expressed his concerns and opposition regarding the vote. He recommended further discussion by the Board before forwarding to the Board of Higher Education. Trustee Lee and Provost Karim discussed the process by which the program vote was established.

After further discussion, it was moved and seconded and the Secretary called the roll with each Trustee asked to vote yes or no. Chair Woolridge voted for the motion as did Vice Chairs Furman and King-Shaw; Trustees Buonomo, Campbell, Carpm, Collins, Geoffroy, Johnston, Lee, Lowe, Mullan, Osterhaus-Houle, Peters, Thomas and Xifaras. Trustees Fubini and Peyser abstained.

VOTED: To approve the Ph.D. in Business Administration at the University of Massachusetts of Dartmouth as contained in Doc. T15-048.

Vice Chair King-Shaw’s phone participation ended at 10:22 a.m.

Committee on Administration and Finance
Trustee Buonomo reported that the Committee on Administration and Finance met on June 10th. The chair provided an overview of the State tax revenue collections, reported on the Boston Globe article, “Who will bankroll UMass?” UMass Amherst students, Charlotte Kelly and Jeremy Tibbetts expressed their concerns about the proposed $250 technology fee. The Committee also heard a presentation on the 10 key metrics for the budget and fee discussion, an overview of the FY16 operating budget, an overview of the proposed fees increase and a quarterly capital projects report. The Committee approved 5 action items and voted to put items 1, 4 and 5 on the Consent Agenda for Board action.

Trustee Buonomo then asked the Chair to entertain a motion to approve the FY2016 University Operating Budget. Chair Woolridge asked for questions and discussion.

It was moved and seconded.

VOTED: To approve the FY2016 University Operating Budget and to authorize the President to approve changes, as needed, once the General Appropriations Act for FY2016 is signed into law. (Doc. T15-054)
Trustee Buonomo asked the Chair to entertain a motion to approve the Mandatory Student Charges and Authorization for the President to Approve all other Charges for Academic Year 2015-2016.

Chair Woolridge asked for questions and discussion. Trustees Peyser, Geoffroy, and Carpman expressed their opposition of the proposed fee increases.

It was moved and seconded.

VOTED: 1. In accordance with Section 1A of Chapter 75 of the General Laws, and Policy T92-031, Appendix E, to authorize the President to approve, no later than June 30, 2015, or upon the General Appropriations Act for FY2016 becoming law, the individual rates for mandatory student charges, which includes tuition, the mandatory curriculum fee and all other mandatory student fees and to expand the mandatory technology fee to the Amherst and Dartmouth campuses. Other Business:

The first item for approval was the Resolution of Thanks and Appreciation – Robert Caret. Chair Woolridge asked for questions or discussion.

It was moved and seconded.

VOTED: WHEREAS, Robert L. Caret was elected the 26th President of the University of Massachusetts system on January 13, 2011 and his tenure has been marked by successes in numerous areas, ranging from student affordability to a heightened focus on efficiency and transparency to a greater level of appreciation for the University and the contribution it makes to the Commonwealth and the world; and

WHEREAS, under his leadership, student enrollment has soared, the endowment has risen to a record level, a building boom has transformed the student and faculty experience across all five campuses, and the University’s research and innovation accomplishments have received national and global acclaim. Today, the University of Massachusetts is an academic and research powerhouse, ranking as the No. 1 public university in New England and as one of the 100 best universities in the world; and

WHEREAS, a national champion of increased government support for public higher education, President Caret successfully pursued a funding formula (50/50) for the University system in which the Commonwealth and UMass students shared equally in the cost of education. His success in securing this additional funding from the state allowed UMass to freeze tuition and mandatory fees for in-state undergraduate students for the past two years – a major national accomplishment; and

WHEREAS, at the same time, President Caret emphasized efficiency and transparency, launching a number of cost-saving initiatives, focusing on both administrative and academic efficiencies. He also created a new accountability report, “UMass Performance: Accountable and on the Move,” that lays out the University’s goals and carefully tracks progress; and

WHEREAS, President Caret made it his mission to raise the stature of the University of Massachusetts and to tout its singular impact and importance to the state and its economy. Each year, he embarked on a statewide bus tour, traveling hundreds of miles and meeting with dozens of business, civic and political leaders and alumni in an effort to build public and private support for the University; and

WHEREAS, a native New Englander, President Caret joined the University after completing highly successful presidencies at San Jose State University and Towson University. A true leader and a visionary, President Caret’s impact on the University of Massachusetts will be felt for years to come.
BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees of the University of Massachusetts, in a meeting assembled this seventeenth day of June two thousand and fifteen does hereby express on behalf of the entire University community its sincere best wishes and lasting gratitude to President Caret.

FURTHER RESOLVED that the friendship between the University of Massachusetts and President Caret remains strong and that we continue to work in partnership to make education in Massachusetts the envy of the world. (Doc. T15-045)
